KIERTO – CYCLE – RECYCLE

We have always been thrifty. For us, it is a familiar, everyday way to operate that characterizes everything we do. That is also why we want to be among the first ones in exploring different circular economy solutions in our production. In 2022 we tested to combine Lounais-Suomen Jätehuolto's recycled yarn with our linen yarn and made custom-made OmaDesign kitchen towels for Länsi-Suomen Jätehuolto (a Finnish waste management company).

Now we proudly present KIERTO (in English cycle) textiles, where Jokipiin Pellava's linen warp is combined with Lounais-Suomen Jätehuolto's recycled yarn made from post consumer textile waste. The yarn consists of 80% recycled fibre and 20% recycled polyester. The first yarn lot is made from post consumer denim textiles. Therefore, the product color is very fresh: white and denim blue. The final product consists of 50% linen, 40% recycled denim fibre and 10% recycled polyester.

First KIERTO product: Väre towel /solo seat cover

The designer of Väre pattern Sini Henttonen:

The cycle and the beginning of something new have been my inspiration for Väre. Vibrating lines can be seen as yarns or waves that together form a rhythmic surface. I have drawn Väre by hand which makes it organic, whereas the bonding of the fabric tells a story of the yarn origin; recycled denim.

JOKIPIIN PELLAVA x KUOVI

Kuovi is a family company founded by the heir of Birger Kaipainen, to foster and develop the rich and colorful cultural heritage of Birger.

Jokipiin Pellava x Kuovi collaboration aims to recreate Birger Kaipainen's iconic artwork into high quality and timeless linen textiles for home.

We have woven probably Birger's most famous artwork "Orchard" into beautiful and durable home textiles. "Orchard" (Tarha in Finnish) was launched already in 1969 when it was used for ceramics decoration. "Orchard" contains many elements that are typical for Birger's ceramics, like violas, fruit and berries.

The fabric pattern is designed by Pekka Kaipainen who has freely modified the artwork of Birger Kaipainen. Orchard products are sustainably produced of natural raw materials (linen and cotton) in Finland.
